BRAZOS RIVER AUTHORITY
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MICHEL "TODD" BRASHEARS WOLFFORTH

Governor Rick Perry appointed Michel "Todd" Brashears of Wolfforth to the Brazos River Authority Board of Directors for a term to expire Feb. 1, 2015.

Mr. Brashears is an associate professor of agricultural education and communications at Texas Tech University. He is vice president of the Southern Region of the American Association of Agricultural Education, and a member of the National American Association for Agricultural Education, International Association of Food Protection, North American College Teachers of Agriculture, and Association of Leadership Educators.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University, Mr. Brashears received a master's degree in agricultural education from Oklahoma State University, and a doctorate of agricultural education from Texas Tech University.

His wife Mindy is a professor of Food Science at Texas Tech. They live in Wolfforth with their three daughters, Bailey, Reagan, and Presley. The entire family is actively involved showing lambs in livestock shows across the state and enjoys traveling.

Term: 2009 - 2015